THREE OTTO SCHULZ LOUNGE CHAIRS IN TURQUOISE VELVET, SWEDEN 1940'S

A set of three beautiful lounge chairs by Swedish-German designer Otto Schulz for the furniture company Boet in Gothenburg, Sweden in the 1940s. The chairs have been reupholstered in turquoise (blue) velvet. The wooden legs are made from stained beech tree in a reddish-brown nuance (måste verifieras IRL). This chair is a modern design classic, very striking to look at as well as extremely comfortable to sit in.
