"PEGASUS" CERAMIC SCULPTURE BY ARNO MALONOWSKI

Arno Malinowski's Pegasus is a beautifully detailed representation of the mythological winged horse, created in stoneware or porcelain. This piece captures Malinowski's signature style, blending mythological themes with sleek, refined lines that emphasize the strength and grace of Pegasus. The figure is presented in a minimalist yet elegant Art Deco style, with pronounced wings and a robust form. Malinowski's background as a designer for Georg Jensen and the Royal Danish Porcelain Manufactory influenced his ability to create pieces that feel both timeless and distinctly Scandinavian in their simplicity. This rare piece is particularly a unique example of Danish modernist sculpture.
